Sunday School Festival a Success-Holiday Interests-Guests and Travelers.

The Christmas festival of the Methodist Sunday school was held Thursday evening at 7 o'clock in the auditorium of the church, where a service of stery and song entitled The Shepherd's Story, written by Florence Morse Kingeley, was rendered. The reading was by Mrs. John Thumpson, who gave it in well modulated voice. The songs by the full choir, with somand sole by Miss Grace Chapman, also sole. Miss Kats B. Colver, and bass row. Courtland E. Colver, and bass row. Courtland E. Colver, At the close of this service the school marched to music to the vestry of the church, where a Christmas tree laden with gifts was stripped of its fruit for their pleasure. The room had been prettily decorated with red bells and fostoons of red crepe paper, with garlands of green, a pretty feature being the red and green draperies of strips of this paper at each window. Oranges were The Christmas festival of the Methpaper at each window. Oranges were distributed to all. The committee in charge of tree and decorations were Mrs. Eugene LaFontaine, Mrs. Fannis A.
